We remind you that in the back of all three churches we have provided "Mass Bags" for our younger youth to use to occupy them during Mass. Each bag contains crayons, markers, pencil, coloring book, fun pad, rosary, children's missal, and a lap desk or clip board. Each week a different "church bulletin" relevant to the Sunday Gospel is added. Sometimes there is a special snack or craft added. You may also find a story book, info for parents, or other surprise. Please feel free to use the bag during Mass and return it after Mass so the materials may be updated weekly. Any suggestions you have or feedback you have, please call the Parish Office, 315-462-2961 or 585-289-4164

Join one of our Relay for Life Teams:

St. Peter's Rockers or St. Peter's Rockettes at www.relayforlife.org/midlakesredjacketNY. There is no registration fee.

Contact Carrie or Mikayla Morris or Chenoa or Heather Baxter for more information about joining the St. Peter's Rockettes.

They currently are selling piggy banks for $2 each. Save your loose change or bills in the banks and then turn the money into Relay.

They also have luminarias for sale for $5 each. You may decorate your own or purchase a pre-decorated one. This is a wonderful way to honor or remember a loved one who has suffered or survived a form of cancer.

Watch the bulletin for details concerning a fund raising raffle the team will be holding as well as other updates on Relay.

Relay will be held 12 pm Noon Sat., June 11th — 12 pm Midnight June 12th at Red Jacket High School Track.

Father Gagnier will be offering instructional masses at all masses the weekend of April 9th/10th. Some catechists have opted to have their students attend one of these masses in lieu of Sunday evening classes. If this is the case for your child, be aware that we may ask for documentation that they attended mass if they don't attend with their class. We also will be presenting a short quiz on April 17th to see what they learned from Father's instruction. Please do not drop your child off for class on April 10th unless you know your catechist will be there.
