PLEASE SEE INSIDE FOR MASS TIMES

FROM OUR PASTOR, FATHER AMATO

In this third installment of our reflection upon the Roman Canon, we look at the second section to the prayer before the consecration. The priest now asks the Father to keep close to Himself all those who are present:

“Remember, Lord, your servants N. and N. and all gathered here, whose faith and devotion are known to you. For them, we offer you this sacrifice of praise or they offer it for themselves and all who are dear to them, for the redemption of their souls, in hope of health and well-being, and paying their homage to you, the eternal God, living and true.”

It is important to point out again that the Eucharistic Prayer is addressed to the Father and on behalf of the people. The priest does not speak to the people during the Mass except in the few times when he addresses them with, “The Lord be with you,” or during the readings and the homily. The vast majority of the time, he stands as a mediator (in the person of Christ) between the people and God, to bring to God their prayers and sacrifices, and to bring to the people God’s grace and blessings.

It may, at times, be difficult to see this reality because the priest often faces the people while standing at the altar. This can easily give the impression that the priest is speaking to the people, or at least, that the Eucharistic Prayer is a kind of monologue, where the people patiently sit and listen. In reality, the priest stands as head of the people, leading them in prayer to the Father. There is a sort of motion happening where the people of God, gathered by Christ, venture to our heavenly homeland – even if just for those few precious moments during the Mass. This is why the priest and people facing the same direction – a common direction such that the priest is leading them, and so they see his back – was the usual way a priest would say Mass until relatively recently. I would say that it allows the people to participate more fully in the Mass because they are not given the impression that they are just waiting for the priest to say something to which they must respond. Rather, they are invited to venture with the priest into the presence of God, following Him by the Eucharistic Prayer, and making those words their own.

As for the prayer we look at today, you will notice at Mass that I make a long pause after the words, “Remember, Lord, your servants.” This prayer is called the “Memento of the Living.” At that moment when I pause, I am praying for all those who I have in mind who have asked me for their prayers and others whom I know need prayers. When I pause, this is also your opportunity to mention silently to God all those for whom you wish to pray at this Mass. This is part of your active participation. And so, I pray not just for my own needs and intentions, but as the priest who is offering this particular Sacrifice of the Mass, I am asking God, on your behalf, to send down His graces for those intentions as well.

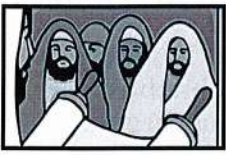

Then we pray for three specific intentions that are mentioned here at every Mass. I had written previously that the Mass is offered for four purposes or “ends”: adoration, thanksgiving, propitiation, petition. Here in this prayer, we are praying “for the redemption of their souls.” It is a sacrifice of atonement or propitiation. We also pray “in hope of health and well-being.” It is a sacrifice of petition.

Finally, we pay our homage and adoration to the eternal God through this sacrifice, at each and every Mass. What this part of the prayer is saying is that not only do we offer these gifts of bread and wine, which will become the Divine Victim who the priest (and the people with him) offer to the Father, but we also offer ourselves, our whole lives. We offer all our prayers, our labors and sufferings, our joys and trials. All of it is being prepared to be lifted up to the sight of the Father at this moment. We have nothing that God did not already give us. At the Mass, we offer it all back to the Living and True God.

In Christ,

Father Amato

It's that time of year again! The Bishop Hogan Knights of Columbus Ladies Auxiliary's Annual Raffle has begun.

A raffle ticket for just $20 could earn you
$200, $300, $500, $1000 or even $2000!

That's right—with just one ticket you could win all four prizes as the winning tickets go back into the "pot" to potentially be drawn again.

Tickets can be purchased from any auxiliary member or after any weekend Mass at St. Dominic, St. Felix & St. Francis Church.

Don't delay as only 200 tickets are being sold!

Proceeds from the raffle will enable the auxiliary to award two Academic Awards to qualifying 2025 graduates & to support our parish youth attending a pilgrimage to Steubenville this summer.

JUBILEE 2025

Pilgrims of Hope—Reconciliation, Service & Charity

Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven, may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flames of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel. May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven, and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven. May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth. To our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever. Amen

Over the Jubilee Year we will explore the themes of Hope, Pilgrimage, & Jubilee, always ending with a question for you to consider over the week. The section of Isaiah read by Jesus in today's gospel is also the basis of a Jubilee Year. During a Jubilee we strive to right the relationships of our world—in short to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord. Those relationships are as varied as our population.

Ponder Point: What relationships do you have that need to be put on a better track? What groups are you a part of that can help?
